

NASHVILLE:

Wednesday Morning, July 26, 1887.

Official Journal for Publishing the Post Office Letter List.

Notice to Transient Advertisers.

The candidates for Governor fill their appointments to-day. They speak in Watkins' Grove. We hope there will be a general turnout to see the "statesman of splendid talents" skinned by the "school boy."

Campbell's City Business Directory.

This work is well received by its patrons in this and other cities for which the author respectfully thanks them. There is still an ample supply of copies at this office which ought to be disposed of readily. We hope our enterprising citizens will not permit Mr. C. to lose money by a publication so essential to our city and State. Mr. Campbell has been liberal in the gratuitous distribution of copies on our Steamboats, Railroads, and other public offices. We wear him witness that he has done his best to make both the Directory and its circulation satisfactory. This work is a credit to our city and State, at home or abroad. Let us now decide to take a copy.

A Stamp Tax in California.—The Legislature of California had a stamp tax of 20 cents on the $100 on bills of exchange drawn in the State and payable out of it. This is one-fifth of one percent, and must appreciate the rate of exchange; it will, however, probably induce the shipment of some gold which otherwise would have been remitted in bills. This law went into effect on the 1st of July.

The Richmond American gives the following recipe for Blackberry Wine: Measure your berries and bruise them; to every gallon add one quart of boiling water. Let the mixture stand twenty-four hours, stirring occasionally; then strain off the liquor into a cask; in every gallon add two pounds of sugar, cork tight and let it stand till October and you will have wine ready for use, without further bottling or straining, that will make lips smack as they never smacked under similar influence before.

Cultivating a Railroad.—The Auburn (N. Y.) American says that "rails and scores of miles within the fenced track of the Central Railroad are planted with potatoes by the employees of that great road." These "railroad farms" are attended to mostly by the wives of the employees.

Saxo, the well-known poet, and editor of the Burlington Sentinel, addresses the following to an offended subscriber: A guilty patron of the Sentinel "Saxo" has sent the thing to hell! A line 2 miles. The proper way to change it is to send it to the "Saxo" and let it be changed. The subscriber will be sure to get it.

The Capitol Dome.—The Washington Statesman contradicts the rumor that the walls of the dome of the new Capitol had been found insufficient to support the dome, and states upon the best authority, that there is no truth whatever in the rumor. It has the authority of Mr. Walter, the architect, for saying that no change has taken place in his own judgment, nor in that of Capt. Meigs, in relation to this subject, and that no practical demonstration has been made from which any new conclusions are warranted. It also states that the weight of the new dome will be less than that of the old one.

Dahey (Democrat) has been elected Circuit Judge, in the 3rd Judicial District over N. F. Gray, (American). His majority is two hundred and seventy-five. The district gave eight hundred majority for Buchanan.—Mayfield (Ky.) Eagle.

A young man, who was desirous of marrying a daughter of a well-known Boston merchant, after many attempts to bribe, and to seduce the old gentleman, in a very telling manner said: "Mr. O.—you are willing to let me have your daughter Jane?" "Yes," answered the old man, "I will let you have her, if you will give me a good horse." "I will give you a good horse," answered the young man, "if you will let me have your daughter Jane."

"My love," said Mrs. Fossle to her husband, "oblige me with a five pound note to-day, to purchase a new dress." "Shan't do any such thing, Agnes—your called me here yesterday."

"Lor, love, that was nothing—I meant by it that you were fond of the word 'nothing'." "You little—! I have no five, but here's a ten."

The author of the following lines is said to be a distant relative of Alexander Smith, the poet. His name is probably John. He is in a fair way to become as celebrated as Alexander:

Albion Brown, With a bran new gown, Went down to see her new girl, When Jonathan Lee, As a friend, Came right up and kissed her.

Potato Bug.

VALUABLE DISCOVERY.—Thomas H. Woods, of this county, informs us that the potato bug having made its appearance among his potatoes, he tried several remedies, but to no avail. At last he made a strong solution of kerosene, and with a few pounds of soap, a few gallons of water, and a quantity of soda. The whole being mixed into a paste, he poured it on to the plants so as to cause it to run down the stems. The result was that the bugs were killed instantly, while those that escaped off did not return. This is certainly a cheap, valuable and efficient remedy. To persons who ought to be published in every paper.—Winchester (Tenn.) Journal.
